

THE NORMANTON FREESTON FOUNDATION

THE KEITH HILL JURISPRUDENCE AWARD

The Trustees of the Normanton Freeston Foundation have established an award to be named The Keith Hill Jurisprudence Award to acknowledge and commemorate as a lasting memorial the substantial contributions made by Keith Hill to both the Freeston Foundation and Outwood Academy Freeston, formerly know as The Freeston Academy, The Freeston Business and Enterprise College and former school.

After obtaining an appropriate first degree some former students embark upon a further course which on successful completion enables them to practise as a solicitor or a barrister.

Former students who complete at least one term of a course of this type before he or she is 25 years old are eligible to apply for an award. The amount of the award will be a one off payment of £300-00.
